

Rack 'Em Up

You asked, we listened... We shook up our point system for 2018!

What's the same: Teams still earn points for participating in IGNITE Cup events and for doing well at that event.

What's different: We've changed the value of everything. By making the scale smaller, it should be easier for people to move up (and down) the Leaderboard. We've also re-designed the bonus point system.

IGNITE Cup Events

- Participation: 1 point per person who participates in the event (up to the max per event)
- Winning events: 20 points for 1st place; 19 points for 2nd place; 18 points for 3rd place & so on. Remember! Penny Wars counts as its own event!
- Occasional bonus points: Every now and then we may get crazy and throw out bonus points for specific things. If these occur, we will let you know via the Ignition Switch before an event.
- Point Bombs: Each month, we will offer "Point Bombs" that are worth a fun amount of points for attending different events. Think things like attending City Market, participating in a 5K or volunteering for a specific cause. This information will come out in the Ignition Switch.

IGNITE Cup Bonus Points – New for 2018

- To earn bonus points this year, teams must complete the Photo Scavenger Hunt. Pictures should be submitted to ignitecup@igniterockford.com.
